Mr. Davies,

You may not have seen the latest back and forth between myself and Jonathan Lichtmacher who I believe is a medical doctor - click HERE - although, you might find at least equally interesting my latest comments on Mark Lavender

's Facebook "wall" that are directed at more than South African-American Dr. Ian T Webber MD, who says he has a successful practice in San Francisco; not to mention, I will respond more fully to your request once I hear back from my one American webmaster Adam L. Tucker whose one cat is injured, and he needs a ride just down the street to the local vet; to mention little of I have of course suggested to Adam that he carry the cat which he may not have thought of, and just simply wants my company; to mention in passing, the initial reaction by a 37 year old Harvard Business School graduate who also has a post graduate engineering degree from Jeffrey Sach's Columbia University, to what I wrote earlier on Mark Lavender's "wall", was that everything he read, which was less than half, and nor did he know to read from the bottom up first, was that everything I was writing was "subjective", and when realizing he didn't have the stamina to continue reading, I suggested that maybe he wasn't taught at either Harvard or Columbia that knowing someone at the South African Reserve Bank during the US Government's Apartheid Regime who were in power for 46 years following the CIA rigged South African General Elections of May 26th, 1948, could make the difference between affording to purchase the Rich-Essakow and company Flower Hill Mall, just a couple of miles from where we are all seated, and not affording this most important acquisition, that took place on the first anniversary of 9/11, this educated idiot who obviously allowed his formal education to interfere with his learning as he opened his mouth and exposed his rather brown teeth, "The conversation is now ended" just as I was beginning to explain that all US soldiers are sworn to defend the US "against all enemies FOREIGN and DOMESTIC"; and when I suggested that this information might be important to the former US Marine Sergeant seated next to him, and who was listening to every word and his body language showed how very uncomfortable he was with the truth, given how he might be no different to most US soldiers who are forced because of the so contrived economic circumstances to be placed in army boots to kill and be killed, this intellectual Harvard-Columbia midget went back to his brainwashed fat TALKATIVE cells, "There has not been a draft in the US since Vietnam. We have an all volunteer military" and when I just smiled, he, who smirked at my thoughts that the only purpose for the human beast being here on planet Mother Earth is to prove out the existence of an Omnipotent Force who also knows best how best to put to work those who have usurped their limited authority, beginning with those who have the knowledge and find every excuse under the sun not to share it with anyone else, then dug deep and came back with, "Me thinks you protest too much"; and of course I could have repeated my Royal Mater-Mother's more recent words, "I only debate people who agree with me" or more simply, "It is better to keep quiet and let people think you to be a fool than to speak out and remove all doubt" - ProVerbs - click HERE

Ian T Webber Your pic looks almost as if you have a mohican up top. Very fetching whatever it is! I did contact your friend Jan – thanks. She told me about a friend from Ireland who eventually had to go back because the Brits have now made it so impossible for "foreign" specialists to be recognized. I haven't decided yet what to do. I do have a very busy and successful practice here in SF which is a very competitive location as you can imagine, so find it a bit frustrating, but I haven't given up yet! How's tings?

Gary Steven Gevisser Ian, what do you think?

The difference in chemistry of the brain between men and women makes women less confrontational – you know this also from possibly having read THE FEMALE

Filters

BRAIN.

If there was not a difference between men and women, don't you think men would seek more peaceful solutions?

Don't you also think if medical doctors did their job then there would be more prevention such as the masses eating a healthier diet, but then what survival skills do you have to afford your sick lifestyle?

When did you last take a break from sharpening your canine teeth?

I could be wrong but it looks to me like your fat TALKATIVE cells do most of your talking?

Gary Steven Gevisser Ian, first I want to say that Mark Lavender who I didn't know very well at Carmel College high school where we all attended in Durban, South Africa, is impressing me every moment he allows me to take you, who if I recall correctly scored the highest in your year's matriculation exam, on a most educational light journey, all in an effort to empower the kids to parent the parents who need the most help.

BTW, can you think of a better explanation for all of us humans being here other than for the exclusive purpose of proving out the existence of an Omnipotent and Eternal Force?

Can you explain how dumb can the smartest of the humans be who couldn't figure out that a rather stupid group of bankers who first got together on July 4th, 1892 in what is known as the Bankers Manifesto, would decide on the price of war as well as everything else?

You have to admit is very humbling.

You would also agree that it would be a miracle, meaning an "Act of God" if these same very dumb individuals could decide amongst themselves through logical thought processing to put aside their heavily bruised egos and follow my suggestions in bringing about world peace and prosperity as we go about highlighting all those such as yourself who have allowed their formal education to interfere with their learning?

Suffice to say, I never thought of you at the time we all attended high school, as an intellectual midget because of the fact that I never gave you much thought.

Suffice to say, apart from our history teacher Ms. Earl, who was one of the beauty queens from Natal-Kwazulu University, and my year having the most attractive Jewish girls most probably in the history of Carmel College, I never gave anyone else much thought, given how I figured early in life, around the time of my barmitzvah that I still remember well, that the most mediocre Jewish people who were the ones that survived The Holocaust could not help themselves but breed increasingly more mediocre children who would by logical extrapolation breed increasingly more, rather than less mediocrity, and when so full of themselves would be the last to know.

You would agree, given all the knowledge we have about the benefits a raw-live food medicine diet with lots of juicing, organic fruits and vegetables of course, that only a narcissistic person would feed their fat TALKATIVE cells cancer causing meat full of corn syrup not fit for the digestive system of a cow.

BTW, do you think it is fair that a South African with the right connections to the South African Reserve Bank can prance into the United States and buy up a gold property like the Marc Rich-Essakow and company's Flower Hill Mall on the corner of the 2 richest communities here in southern California; namely Del Mar and Rancho Sante Fe, and in the next instant after paying more than 20% above market value begin putting small business owners out of business who along with their employees have children who then get moved along with the rest of poor, young and dumb into army boots to kill and be killed on foreign soil, all in an effort to cull the human overpopulation problem, brought about by the corrupt Wall Street in cahoot with the corrupt church promoting the human overpopulation problem to satisfy their marketing plans showing an expanding market place?

Seated across from me here at the one coffee shop in north county San Diego where I have not been kicked out, is a former US Marine who achieved the rank of sergeant and is now studying economics.

Guaranteed he will read this when he finds the time, given how he proved to me earlier that he knew how to get to the $ hit list on 2FACETRUTH.COM.

You know that all US soldiers are sworn to defend the US from all enemies foreign and domestic?

What do you think he will do with this information that he knows is getting out there in real time at light speed?

Moreover, I figured out while still in elementary school that anyone who was not crippled physically and couldn't coordinate their hand-eye coordination which in my mind was the best test of intelligence rather than the Bell Shaped curve educational system where it is the most average such as yourself who rise to the top, was to be avoided at all cost, especially if they had a big mouth.

When I last visited with your classmate Neil Gould in Hong Kong - click hyperlink below -

of all you attending the last Carmel College reunion was taken, he did his best to avoid standing in front of you, as he felt that he wouldn't be able to move fast enough if you decided to give him a shot from the behind; which is why, I assume, he is standing directly behind you?

Now of course I assumed Neil who is a great comic, when he said that he considered you a "sexual deviant" was only kidding given how I doubt very much there is anyone out there who would support such an allegation; bearing in mind that if I were to be called as a witness, based on my knowledge, I would only support you meant nothing in my life, which didn't make you a bad person.

Can you tell me how it would have been possible for you to have got an A in the final matriculation exam for history when you didn't even think to ask your teachers in all your years of studying how it would be possible for you never to have thought it important how apart from the United States allowing Germany to rearm, it was possible for Germany to so flagrantly violate the key provision of the Versailles Peace Treaty following World Oil War I?

Quite frankly I never even knew that you were gay, again all I knew was to avoid people like you like the plague.

While you continue contemplating your navel in deciding how best to respond and you know a non-response is a response, give me your thoughts on this "Capitalism is a fraud" communique I began broadcasting last evening and which you can access directly by going to the $ hit list on 2facetruth.com

I'm not entirely sure why I keep being CC'd into the emails you keep sending - I think there must have been a mistake. I would be really grateful if you were to make sure that your future emails were not sent to me.

Many thanks,
